Dear Sister Stinson:

Thank you so much for the contributions you made to our recent gospel meeting at Eastside. It was a pleasure to be in Phoenix and to enjoy the hospitality of the Eastside congregation.

You were so thoughtful to invite me to the state house. Unfortunately I could not make it, much to my personal regret. It was also thoughtful of you to arrange the lovely dinner we had at the Westward Ho hotel. It was a lovely dinner, but we deeply missed your presence.

Thank you so much for everything you did to make my week in Phoenix a pleasant one.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
